

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS: SLIDELUCK POTSHOW

FEAST OF ART AND FOOD AT WEXNER CENTER; DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS JULY 23

The Wexner Center is now accepting submissions for the Slideluck Potshow, a nationally recognized event that combines a family-style potluck dinner with a slideshow of work by artists from around the state. This free event will take place at the Wexner Center on August 3 at 6:30 pm.

These lively and free-flowing events feature a potluck—dishes that audience members bring to share—and a juried “slideshow” (actually a digital slideshow) with selected artists giving short presentations discussing their work. The deadline for submissions on Monday, July 23. A wide range of artists will be selected for the show. Complete details on how to submit work for consideration are at www.wexarts.org/slideluck.

Slideluck Potshow is a nonprofit organization that mounts similar presentations several times a year in New York, and has recently begun to take the concept on the road—to Chicago, Los Angeles, Berlin, and several other cities. The last Potshow in New York attracted 800 people. More information on the Slideluck Potshow available at www.slideluckpotshow.com.
